1. First open a Web Browser. For example: Mozilla Firefox, Internet Explorer, etc.

2. On the address bar, type: www.twitter.com
You will see the Sign Up page.

Fill in the first field with your full name.

Enter your email address.

Enter a password. Be tricky! Make sure your password contains letters, numbers, and symbols.
Select a username from one of the usernames Twitter has suggested, or create your own. Twitter will automatically suggest available usernames based on the real name and email address you've entered. Try to pick something that describes you - whether it's a nickname, an interest or a hobby.
Choosing a Username: Tips
Your username is the name your followers use when sending @replies, direct messages, or Retweets.

Please note: You can change your username in your account settings at any time, as long as the new username is not in use.

Tip: Entering Your Email
Twitter uses this to confirm your account before you can finish the signup process. Be sure to enter an email address that you actively use. Emails can only be tied to one Twitter account at a time in Twitter system.
Finding Sources That Interest You

Twitter is more useful and fun when you're getting regular updates relevant to your interests, so try the following:

1. Select some of your interests from the top of the screen, or scroll through the interests listed below.
2. Browse the sources listed accounts you might like to follow. (A new list of suggested sources is generated every time you click an interest.)
3. Clicking the 'follow' button next to a user's name will add them to the list of users you are following. This is indicated by the number in the green square above the list.
4. After you've followed users suggested in one area of interest, select another and find more sources to follow!
5. When finished, click the blue 'Next: friends' button in the lower right hand side of your screen.
Getting Personal: Contact Import

If you choose, Twitter can scan your email address book in order to find contacts that are also using Twitter. It’s a fast and easy way to find your friends.

1. Simply type your email address and your email password into the boxes, then hit 'Find friends.' Twitter does not store your login, and we will not use your email address without your permission.
2. When you see a list of the friends and colleagues found in your address book, follow them!
   - Follow all of them by selecting the blue 'Follow All' button on the right hand side of the results
   - Or if you’d like to see updates only from specific people, you can choose to ask to follow your email contacts individually using the grey 'send request' button next to their information.

3. Click the 'Next: others' button at the bottom of your screen.
4. A box will pop-up with your remaining contacts who are not on Twitter. To invite them to join Twitter, check the boxes next to the contacts you wish to invite - or click "select all" at the top.
   Please note: if you click 'select all' and proceed, it will invite all contacts in your address book
Now explore and enjoy your Twitter account. Don’t forget to follow “#EclipsingX”.
