

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Gölge SEFEROĞLU

Middle East Technical University

Faculty of Education

Department of Foreign Language Education

06531 Ankara Turkey

golge@metu.edu.tr

Gölge SEFEROĞLU is an associate professor in English Language Teaching (ELT) in the Department of Foreign Language Education, Middle East Technical University where she teaches undergraduate and graduate courses and supervises MA and PhD dissertations. The courses she has offered include speaking and pronunciation, ELT methodology, practice teaching, translation, linguistics, language acquisition, research skills, and testing.

She received her B.A. in English teaching from Boğaziçi University and she holds MA, EdM, and EdD degrees from Teachers College, Columbia University in the fields of TESOL and Applied Linguistics (1992-1997). Currently, she is the vice Dean of Faculty of Education responsible from student affairs.

Gölge SEFEROĞLU served widely as a consultant to many language/teacher education projects and programs in Turkey contributing to the Turkish education system at large. She has worked in various national projects including the development of the national English curriculum for high schools and structuring the national English teacher competences framework. She published various research articles nationally and internationally that deal with teaching and learning English as a foreign language and use of technology in language learning. Her research interests include computer-assisted language learning, pre- and in-service teacher education, and teaching speaking and pronunciation.