Special Interest Groups [SIGs]

Special Interest Groups [SIGs] are designed corresponding to the interests participants have indicated on the Application Form, aiming to give the participants the chance to voice their opinion on the 4 panels, the last day of the Institute. SIGs will be announced the first day of the Institute before lunch for group members to meet each other and start a close dialogue that can continue throughout the Institute.

- Each SIG is a mix of institutions representing variety of posts and experiences aiming at close interaction. Different institutions/ positions/ experiences/ expertise are included in the same group for closer dialogue on the same topic of interest in breaks and evenings.
- For four days, the five SUWC members will interact with the groups and see that members of all groups feel comfortable in focusing on subjects of their interest, interacting with each other, and taking down notes on presentation material to raise questions on their subjects.
- As each SIG is a mix of institutions and positions with a lot of expected give & take, there is chance for collaborative learning and possible future collaborations between individuals or institutions.
